Definitions and Section 1 — Emergency Medical Expenses

Trip: a journey outside your home country that starts and ends in your home country during the period of insurance and lasts no longer than the maximum trip duration.

Winter sports: skiing, snowboarding, sledging, snowmobiling and any other activity on snow or ice, whether on-piste or off-piste.

Off-piste: skiing or snowboarding outside the marked and patrolled boundaries of a ski resort.

Section 1. We will pay reasonable and necessary costs for emergency medical treatment, hospital accommodation and repatriation if you become ill or are injured during a trip. You must contact our emergency assistance line before any in-patient admission or repatriation is arranged.

We will not pay for treatment that can reasonably wait until you return home, or for any claim arising from a pre-existing medical condition that has not been declared to and accepted by us in writing.
